Progress Minded is dedicated to providing its services to the highest standards. An important part of the processes that ensure these standards is a fair and open method of dealing with complaints, as efficiently and as rapidly as possible, to the entire satisfaction of all concerned. The objective of this procedure is to inform our customers of the most effective way of making a complaint or paying a compliment.

Paying a Compliment

- Explain your concern in as much detail as possible.
- If the concern cannot be cleared there and then, ensure that the staff member provides a mutually acceptable time to report back with a solution.

Stage 2: Unresolved Concern

If you are not satisfied with the solution provided, or the staff member has not reported back at the agreed time:

- Contact the EPA Director, by phone, e-mail or letter, providing full details of your concern and the outcome at Stage 1.
